

Andes

Ice Train II : Ambato-Mocha-Urbina-Cevallos-Ambato

Ambato, the city of the “Flowers and Fruits” is the departing place to cross to the higher train station in the country at 3600 meters!

From the capital of the parks and quintas (historic country homes converted into gardens) to the different Andean ecosystems but also to know people’s expressions by meeting their jobs and traditions.

ITINERARY

Transfer to the train station in Ambato. This train route combines landscape, culture and shopping into a trip that take us from the mild valley of Ambato to the moorlands of Urbina at Chimborazo volcano’s skirt (3600 m).

There, we will meet Baltazar Uscha, the last “iceman” who removes the ice from the snowcapped glaciers for business,being at the same time the guardian of this ancient job.

The Train’s Refuge at this place offers in addition suitable installations for those who like to overnight; transfer back to Ambato.

SERVICES:

Inclusions:

- Private Transportation, Bilingual Guide (Spanish-English),meals as listed on the itinerary, entrance Fees and taxes .

Exclusions:

- Local Taxes, Tips, Drinks, Personal expenses and any other service not mentioned here.

Share Basis

33

per person

Departure from Ambato

*5% off cash payment